CONSENT TEMPORARY ORDER

This matter is before the Court pursuant to Plaintiff's' Complaint for Modification of Child Support and for Emergency Ex Parte Relief. It appearing to the Court that the parties have reached a temporary agreement and it further appearing that the terms of the parties' agreement are reasonable under the circumstances of this case, the Court hereby enters the instant Consent Temporary Order which reflects the settlement of the parties.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff shall have primary physical custody of the parties' minor child, to wit: Wayland Brooks Willis, born in 2018. Defendant shall have supervised daytime visits with the minor child on alternating weekends beginning April 5, 2025. If the parties cannot otherwise agree, the Defendant shall have visitation with the child on Saturday from 9AM to 1PM and Sunday from 12PM to 5PM every other weekend. All periods of visitation shall be supervised by the paternal grandparents of the minor child unless the parties agree on an alternative supervisor. For the purpose of this order, supervised visitation means that the supervisor shall have eyes on the minor child at all times during visitation. Under no circumstances shall the minor child be left alone with the Defendant for any period of time during visitation. Additionally, the supervisors shall be responsible for all transportation of the minor child. The Defendant is specifically prohibited from driving the minor child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Guardian Ad Litem, Renee Bell, shall perform periodic drop ins during the Defendant's visitation to confirm that the rules for supervision are being followed. Additionally, the Guardian Ad Litem shall have the authority to drug test (hair follicle and/or urine) the Defendant at any time and may request that any other individual who will be around the minor child also submit to random drug screens.

All other matters are reserved until further Order of the Court.

SO ORDERED. This 30 day of June, 2025.
