THIRD TEMPORARY ORDER

This matter is before the Court pursuant to Plaintiff's Complaint for Modification of Visitation and Child Support and for Emergency Ex Parte Relief. A temporary hearing was scheduled on December 9, 2025. Plaintiff was present and represented by her counsel of record, Adam D. Land. Defendant was also present and elected to proceed Pro Se. Now upon consideration of the sworn pleadings of the parties, all evidence presented (including the testimony of the Guardian Ad Litem, Renee Bell), and the argument and proffer of counsel, the Court hereby FINDS that the entry of the instant Third Temporary Order is necessary and appropriate under the circumstances of this case.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff shall continue to have primary physical custody of the parties' minor child, to wit: Wayland Brooks Willis, born in 2018.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's visitation with the

ORDER IMMEDIATELY SUSPENDING VISITATION

On November 20, 2025, this Court received an email from the Guardian, Renee Bell, requesting the Court to immediately suspend the Respondent's visitation. The Respondent submitted to a hair follicle drug screen test on October 16, 2025, and the report was not completed and distributed to the Attorneys or Guardian until October 29, 2025. After receiving the test results, the Guardian suspended visitation. The Respondent submitted to another drug test on November 11, 2025 which he passed. Upon receipt of the November 11 testing report, the Guardian tried to reinstate supervised visitation on her own. However, the weekend of November 15th, the Guardian had concerns that the Respondent was not sober. The Court hereby finds that it is in the best interest of the child for visitation to be suspended entirely until further order by this Court.

This 24th day of November, 2025.
